

InsideART Curriculum Overview
 Spring 2021
Still Here and Marking Monuments
 (January 22 – March 6, 2021)

Title of Lesson	Artist/ Exhibition	Social Studies Theme/Concepts/Skills	Art Works	Instructional Strategies
"On the Bones of the Oppressors": Race, Racism, and the Civil Rights Movement	Griffith J. Davis Emory Douglas Hank Willis Thomas Still Here	Racism Civil Rights Movement	"Legislators" The Heirs of Malcolm Only on the Bones of the Oppressors Golly, Mis' Maria... The Breakfast Belle "Relax Me" B®anded/Unbranded	Critical Visual Analysis Visually-rich PPT Class Discussion Note-Taking Close reading Student Project
Civil Rights Activists and the Art of the Fight	Griffith J. Davis Still Here	14 th Amendment Racism Civil Rights Movement	Unacknowledged Legislators Legislators	Critical Visual Analysis Poem Analysis Song Analysis Visually-rich PPT Reflection activities Class Discussion Note-Taking
The Quest for Equality: Human Rights & Women's Civil Rights through Art	Hank Willis Thomas Still Here	Human Rights Women's Civil Rights	The Men Cheered! Behind every great man...	Cooperative Learning Critical Visual Analysis Class Discussion Primary Documents Video Writing Activities Differentiated Assessment
The Gamble Plantation: Remembering Slavery in Florida	John Sims Marking Monuments	Monuments Slavery and indentured servitude Social Justice	Recoloration Proclamation Freedom Memorial at Gamble Plantation	Critical Visual Analysis Discussion Reading Reflection Student produced art Visually-rich Power Point presentation
Seeds of Resistance: The Caribbean-Inspired Art of Joiri Minaya	Joiri Minaya Marking Monuments	Revolution and resistance movements Caribbean history	The Cloaking of the statues of Ponce de Leon at the Torch of Friendship and Christopher Columbus behind the Bayfront Park Amphitheatre in Miami, Florida, 2019	Critical Visual Analysis Visually-rich PPT Class Discussion Art Analysis Student produced art